UMC Spring Orientation to be held January 8

By Lisa Samuelson on Tuesday, December 20, 2005

The First Year Experience program at the University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) will sponsor orientation on January 8, 2006. Spring orientation is designed for new and transfer students and serves to assist students with the transition into the college environment at UMC.

Spring orientation will introduce students to campus services that will support their educational and personal goals and provides information and assistance to students so they may succeed academically and develop personally. Students will participate in a technology workshop along with being issued a laptop computer. UMC graduates gain two to four years of applied computer experience due to UMC's technology component, which provides all full-time students with a laptop computer.

Spring semester classes begin on January 9.
